

In this sequence the golfer has to play three contrasting shots.

Stance, aspects of body position (for example, the head) and each phase of the swing can be a focus for analysis.

Playing this par 5 hole, the golfer has to take account of the windy conditions.

In this sequence the golfer's third shot is a recovery shot out of the rough. She then attempts a long putt.

