

Chapter 3: Weblinks

www.timegenie.com/country.time/id

Indonesian Time Genie gives the current time in the major regions and cities of Indonesia as well as providing interesting geographical information. It even tells you the sunrise and sunset times! You can use Time Genie to work out the time difference between Indonesia and Australia or any other country.

www.dailymotion.com/video/x9z0h6_telling-time-learn-indonesian-with_travel

This video helps you learn how to say the time in Bahasa Indonesian. The video provides visual and audio help so you can read, listen and recite — the best way to practise!

www.studyindonesian.com/lessons/time/

This website provides plenty of information on how to tell the time in Bahasa Indonesian. You can adjust the big clock and learn the words for telling different times. The site provides guidance on basic grammar and explains how to pronounce numbers and other words that relate to time.

www.learningindonesian.com/free-lessons/58-lesson-15-of-learning-indonesian-months-and-dates

This audio lesson will teach you how to pronounce months and dates in Indonesian. It uses the basic learning skill of listening and repeating and gives you plenty of time to repeat! The lesson can be downloaded as an MP3.

www.youtube.com/watch?v=b1NznUscvvg

This YouTube video will teach you how to say and write the months of the year and the days of the week.

www.education.vic.gov.au/languagesonline/indonesian/indonesian.htm

Languages Online, a Victorian Department of Education website, also provides games for practising how to tell the time.

All URLs contained in this page and publication were checked for currency during the production process. Note, however, that the publisher cannot vouch for the ongoing currency of URLs.