

Chapter 2: Weblinks

www.indonesia.travel/

Visit the website of the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of the Republic of Indonesia. The website is in English as well as in Indonesian, and it showcases all the events, news, statistics and opportunities offered in the country. It is a rich space where you can easily find information and data for your presentations and projects.

<http://m.dephub.go.id/>

Very close to the concept of ‘travelling’, this is the official website for the Ministry of Transportation of the Republic of Indonesia. Compare it with the one in your country, and find similarities and differences, if any apart from the official language of communication!

www.youtube.com/watch?v=zkcVQSpbQfU

This is an efficient way of travelling in the busy street of Jakarta: the rapid bus system called TransJakarta. Look up for more videos and information about this bus system.

www.youtube.com/watch?v=m2VWxrITm7w&feature=related

This is yet another official video advertisement for Indonesia. Sometimes, it can also be a good exercise to read the comments accompanying a video. Some may not be nice and some are questionable. Discuss in class some of them, and the possible reasons for positive and negative comments.

All URLs contained in this page and publication were checked for currency during the production process. Note, however, that the publisher cannot vouch for the ongoing currency of URLs.